

YOUNG CONSERVATOR AWARD

CRITERIA FOR SELECTION

Applications are invited from conservators under the age of 40 years as on the 10.8.2017, for Yong Conservator Award, giving details on the items as under:

1. Academic qualification giving details of Master degree in conservation/fine arts/science with chemistry at graduate level from a recognized institution.
2. Whether you are an active member of IASC from the last three years in continuation.
3. Present employment and job profile.
4. Experience in Nominee must demonstrate good leadership, commitment, creativity and good conservation practices.
5. Experience in carrying out projects in the field of conservation of cultural property of public and private bodies.
6. Mention any innovative methods used by you in the field of conservation of cultural property
7. Technical publication including case studies, research papers, review articles, as single author or first author.
8. Whether the conservation activities mentioned is done by you or your team or you as a team member.

Last date for application 15.8.2017

Email Id – “IASC Secretary” <iascsecretariate@gmail.com>